The last cholera victim, W. H. Wheeler, died in the cholera hospital at 6:40 last evening.

This is ladies' day at the Beretania street tennis grounds and they are well patronized.

Trains on the Oahu railway commence running on the regular schedule tomorrow morning.

Filibuster yarns are so plentiful that they threaten to drive out the mosquitoes for want of room to circulate.

Band concert at the Executive building this afternoon at 4. The boys will also play for the battalion drill tonight.

It cost the Kauai contingent $1.40 per day while at quarantine station. George Fairchild was caterer for the crowd.

Fine furnished rooms with bath and other modern improvements for rent at reasonable prices at 29 Beretania street.

The lights of steamers quarantined in the roadstead give the appearance of a hostile fleet investing the approach to the harbor.

An article in yesterday's BULLETIN, concerning Joaquin Miller and his bath, should have been credited to the San Francisco Call.

A fresh new stock of straw hats, all grades from $1.00 up. Try a "Panama" hat, we carry three qualities, you can take your choice. McInerney.

The Bennington will sail for Hilo some time tomorrow, and will cruise about the islands until it is perfectly safe to anchor in Honolulu harbor.

Patrons of the Criterion Saloon are notified that a fresh supply of Wieland's celebrated beer will arrive by the Australia. Also fresh oysters for cocktails.

A new magazine rifle invented by an Italian fires twenty cartridges automatically without requiring any change of position on the part of the soldier.

L. B. Kerr has received by the Australia a new line of Scotch gingham, white and cream crepons and white cotton duck for ladies' and children's dresses.

A number of people who desired to go into quarantine previous to going to Maui and Hawaii were disappointed from lack of accommodations on the island.

The Temple of Fashion will on Monday, Oct. 7, sell plain and figured silk at 25c per yard. This is for one day only, and the former price of this silk was $1.00 per yard.

In the United States 60,000 acres of land are devoted to celery growing. In Hawaii people are too lazy to grow the article and prefer to pay exorbitant prices for a stale California product.

Bicyclers are likely to get cut, scraped, sprained, bruised, or some way hurt. No matter which, an application of Redding's Russia Salve will take away the smart and pain, and cure the trouble in a hurry. Thousands of wheelmen never go on the road without it. Why should you? 25 cents buys it of any druggist. Handy box for your pocket. Hollister Drug Co., Agts.

Battalion drill at 7:30 p. m. sharp.

The Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium will open on Monday week.

Disinfectants are still in supply at Benson, Smith & Co.'s

There is only one store in town where you can buy dress suits, both plain and figured, at 25c per yard. The Temple of Fashion makes this offer for one day only, Monday Oct. 7. The former price of these silks was $1.00 per yard.

It has been suggested that a government depot for the supply and sale of fresh fish be opened. Major McLeod said this morning the Metropolitan Meat Company would take charge of the sale without compensation if the government would furnish the fish and necessary inspectors.

Mr. Silva of the Temple of Fashion is going to have a special silk sale on Monday, Oct. 7. Dress silks, plain and colored, and of every conceivable shade, will be sold for 25 cents per yard. This sale lasts for one day only—Oct. 7th. The former price of these silks was $1.00 per yard.

A morning contemporary has frequently noticed the shipment of $50,000 in gold by a local bank, and says it will soon be placed in circulation. It might have added that after being steamed and cooked by the Iron Works and circulated a short time on the islands most of it will eventually be "salted down" for shipment to China.

The Temple of Fashion will display in their window tomorrow something that has never been seen in Honolulu before. The reporter of this paper was unable to induce Mr. Silva to say what it was, therefore it may be anything from a giraffe to a sea serpent. Whatever it is Mr. Silva assures us that it will be interesting and novel. Don't miss it.

Yale's Skin Food

removes wrinkles and all traces of age. I feeds through the pores and builds up the fatty membranes and wasted tissues, nourishes the shrivelled and shrunken skin, tones and invigorates the nerves and muscles, enriches the impurified blood-vessels, and supplies youth and elasticity to the action of the skin. It's perfect.
